A Century of Annuals

Foreword

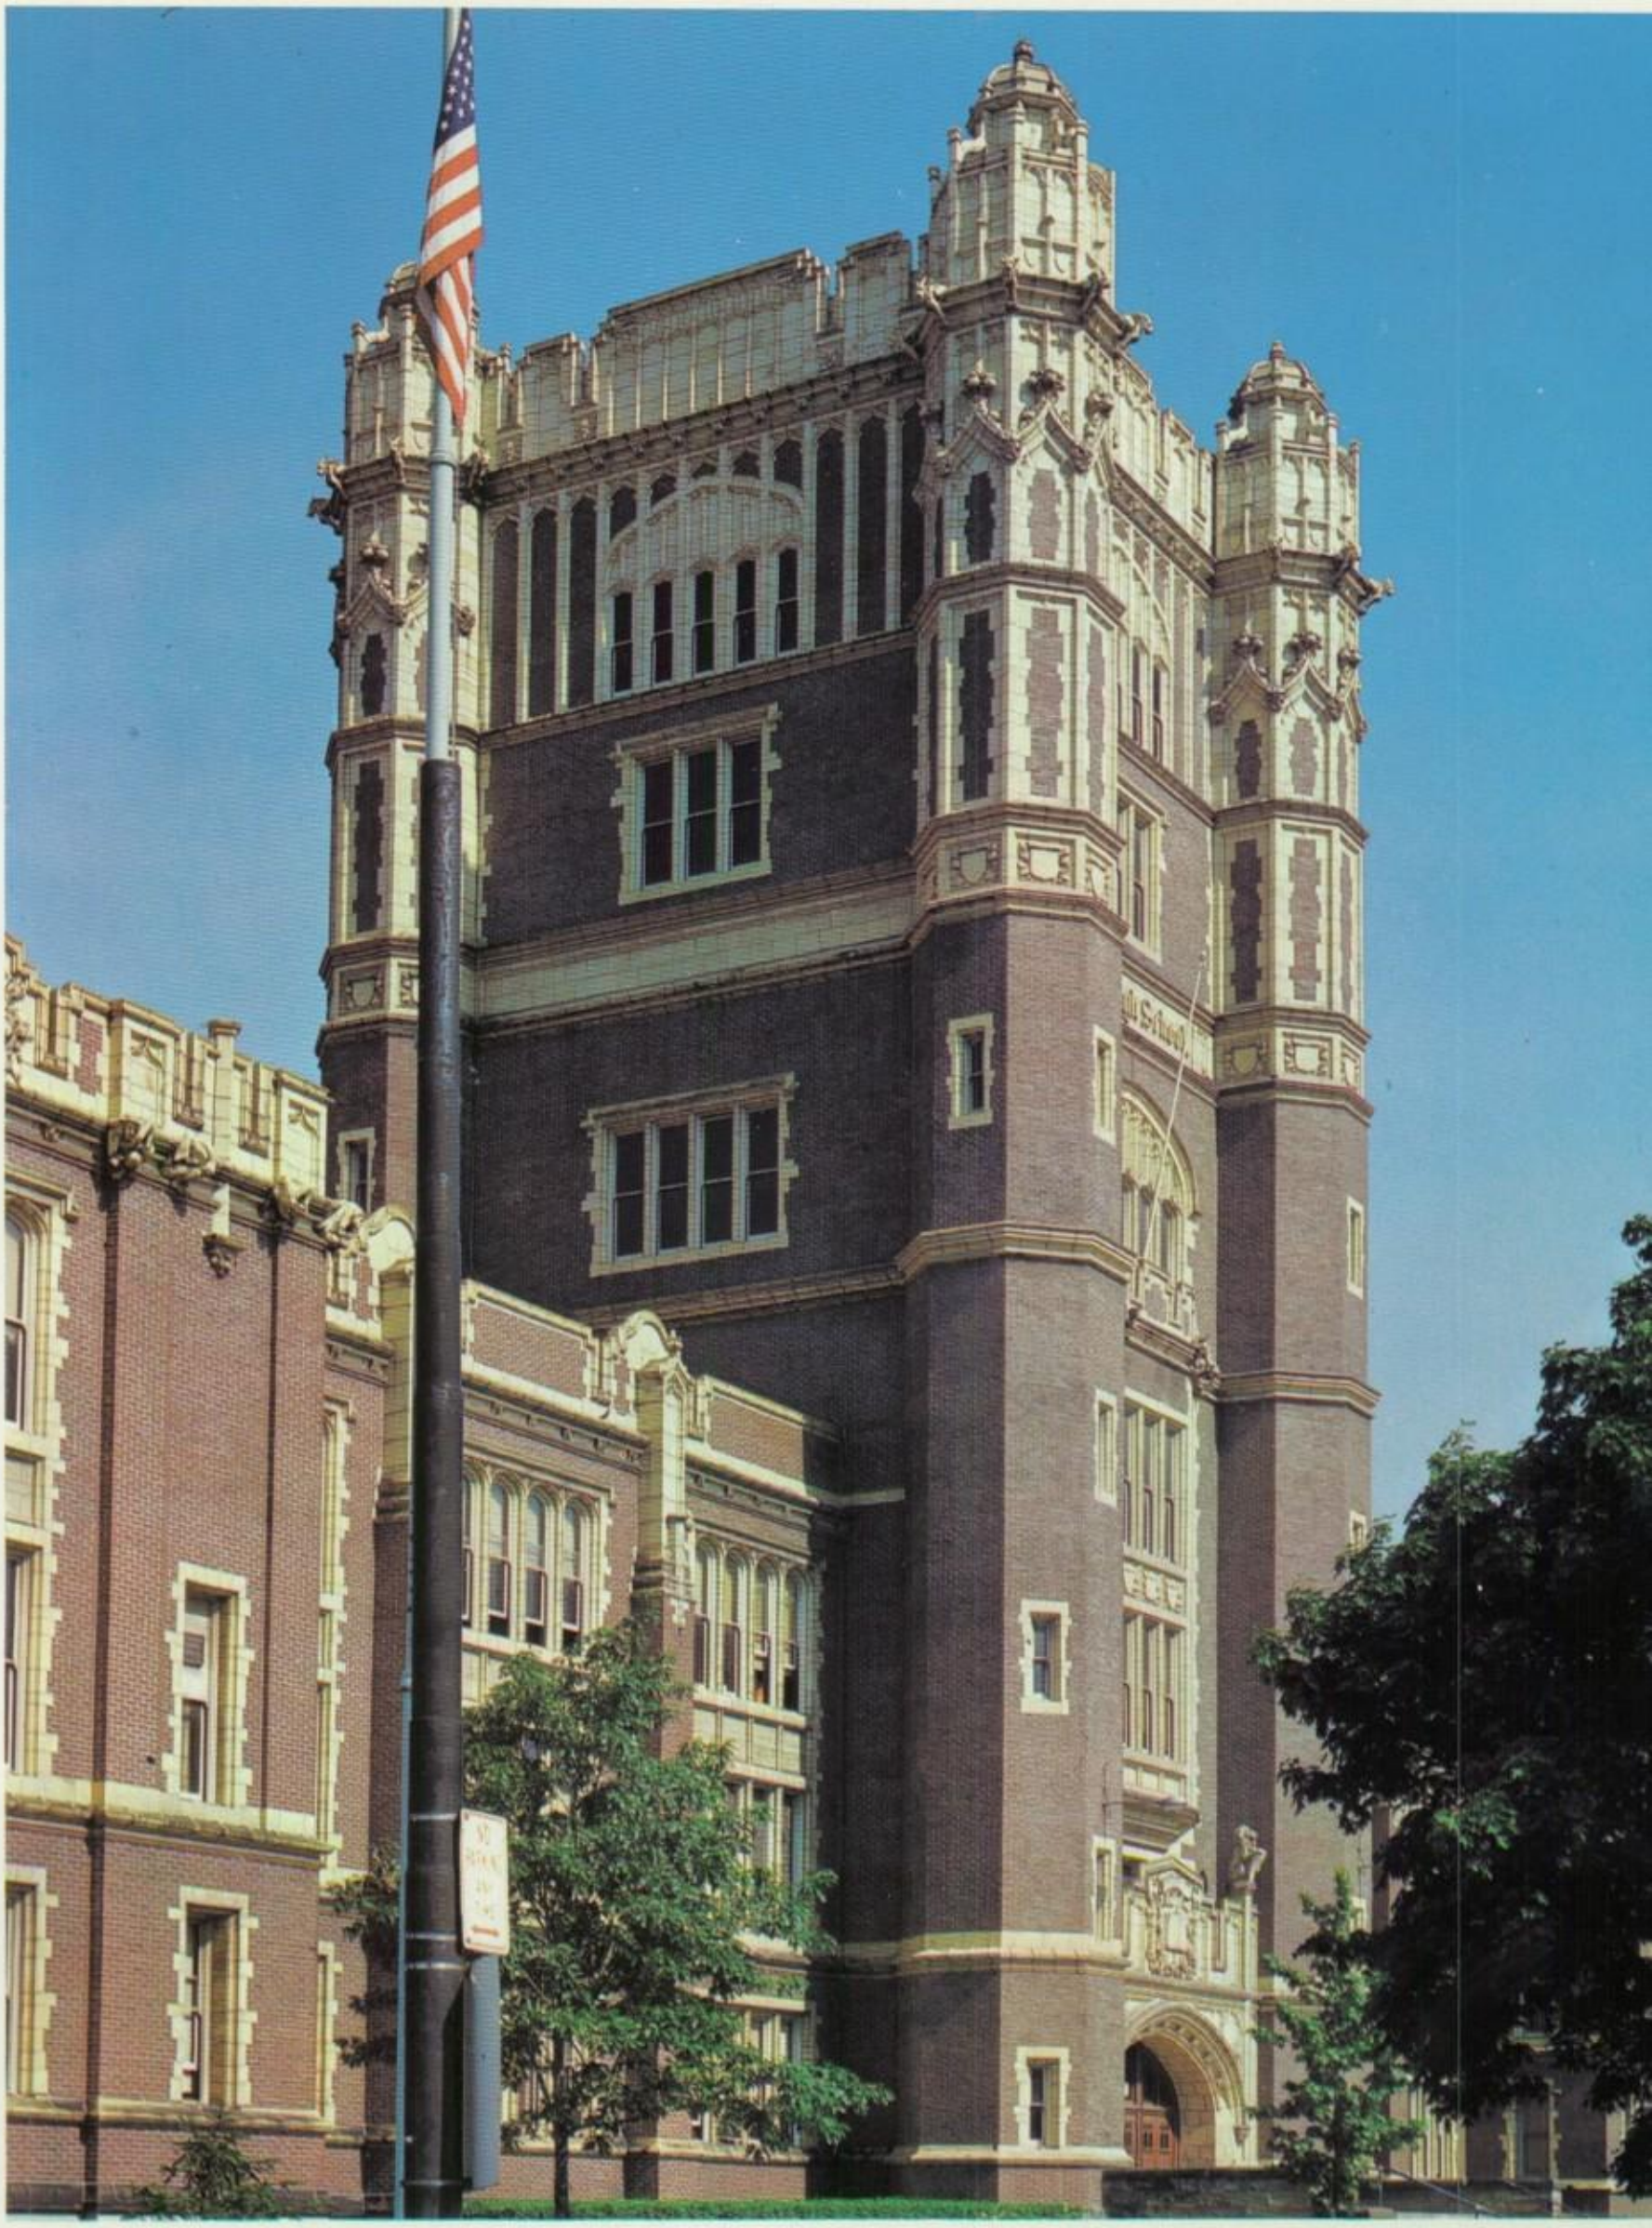
Looking backwards through time and history is our aim in this, our hundredth Annual. From the present to the past we'll travel, finding many things unknown or perhaps just forgotten in the hundred years past.

In the modern 1960's we have seen great achievements made in the fields of space exploration, medicine and sports. A promising football club, the Cincinnati Bengals, was born in 1968. In a sadder vein, the nation mourned the loss of two great leaders, Robert Kennedy and Martin Luther King, Jr. A new double-tiered bridge was opened across the Ohio River, a marked change from the C&O Bridge built in 1888 and the Suspension Bridge of 1865.

In contrast, the first Hughes Annual was published in 1870, forty-six years after the death of Thomas Hughes and the same year that Charles Dickens died—the illustrious author whose works are read by almost all Hughes students. Major League baseball was started with the formation of the Cincinnati Red Stockings in 1869. Ohio State University was established in 1870 at Columbus. The famous Tyler-Davidson fountain was dedicated barely one year later. Cincinnati's first May Festival was held in 1873, although the completion of Music Hall was still five years away.

Through the years, Hughes High School has seen promising young students become leaders in many fields and develop into fine athletes. The size of the student body has increased and to meet the growing size and need for modern conveniences, the building, too, has been improved. We, in 1969, sincerely wish to think that if Thomas Hughes were to look down upon us today, he would be proud of what he saw. Echoing a voice from the past, we say:

"Unlettered, lowly, modest and obscure,
And yet his name through ages will endure."



Dateline: Hughes High

1824—Thomas Hughes died, leaving his property to the city for the education of poor children. Income from the property paid for the education of needy pupils at Woodward College for ten years.

1845—A lot for a high school was purchased on Ninth Street but no building was erected. It was sold in 1851 for $15,700.

1851—A Union Board of High Schools was formed. The Board decided that Race Street should be the dividing line between the schools. Pupils west of the line were to remain at Central School (Hughes); those east of the line were to go to Woodward.

1852—First Hughes class graduated from Greenwood Hall at Sixth and Vine Streets.

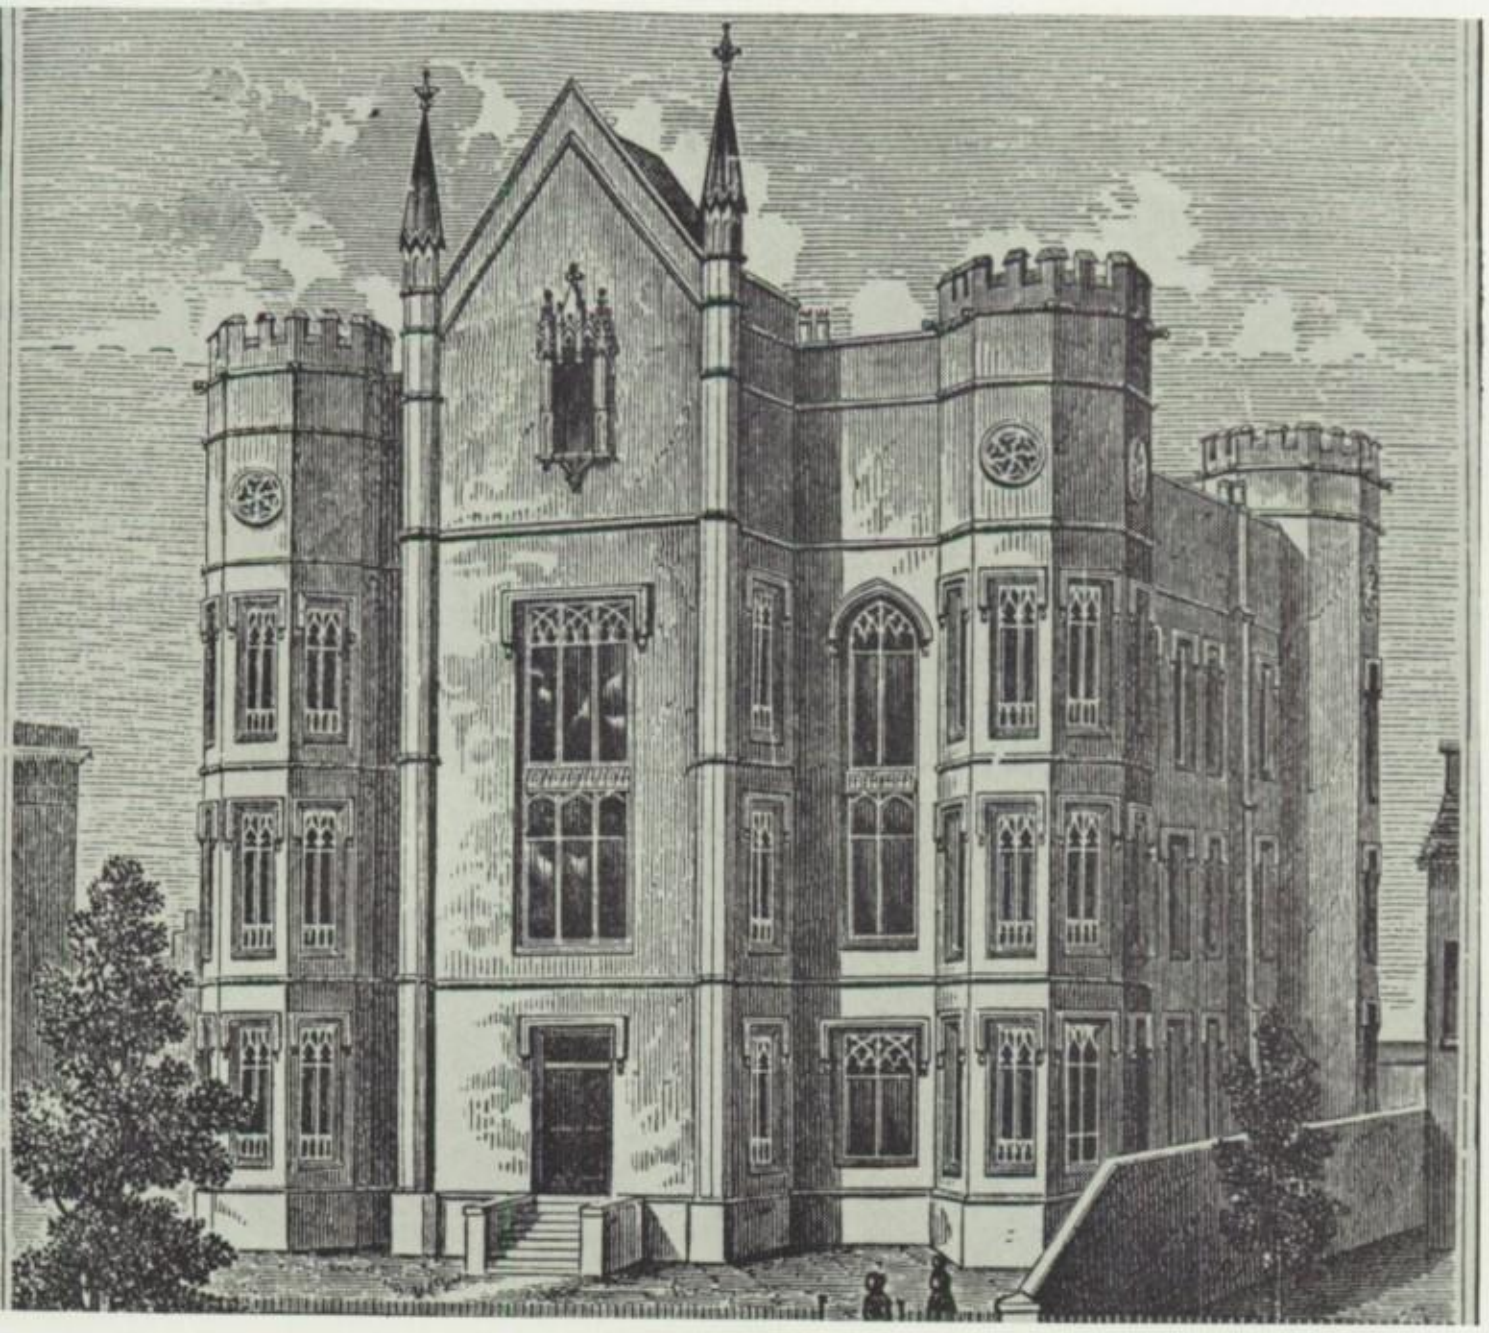
1853—First Hughes building was erected on the lot on Fifth Street opposite Mound.

1908—Cornerstone of present building was laid.

1910—Present building was dedicated.

1924—A new wing, known as the Annex, was added on the Stratford Avenue side.

1966—Property on Stratford Avenue was bought for constructing a new gymnasium-auditorium.



The old canal at Brighton.

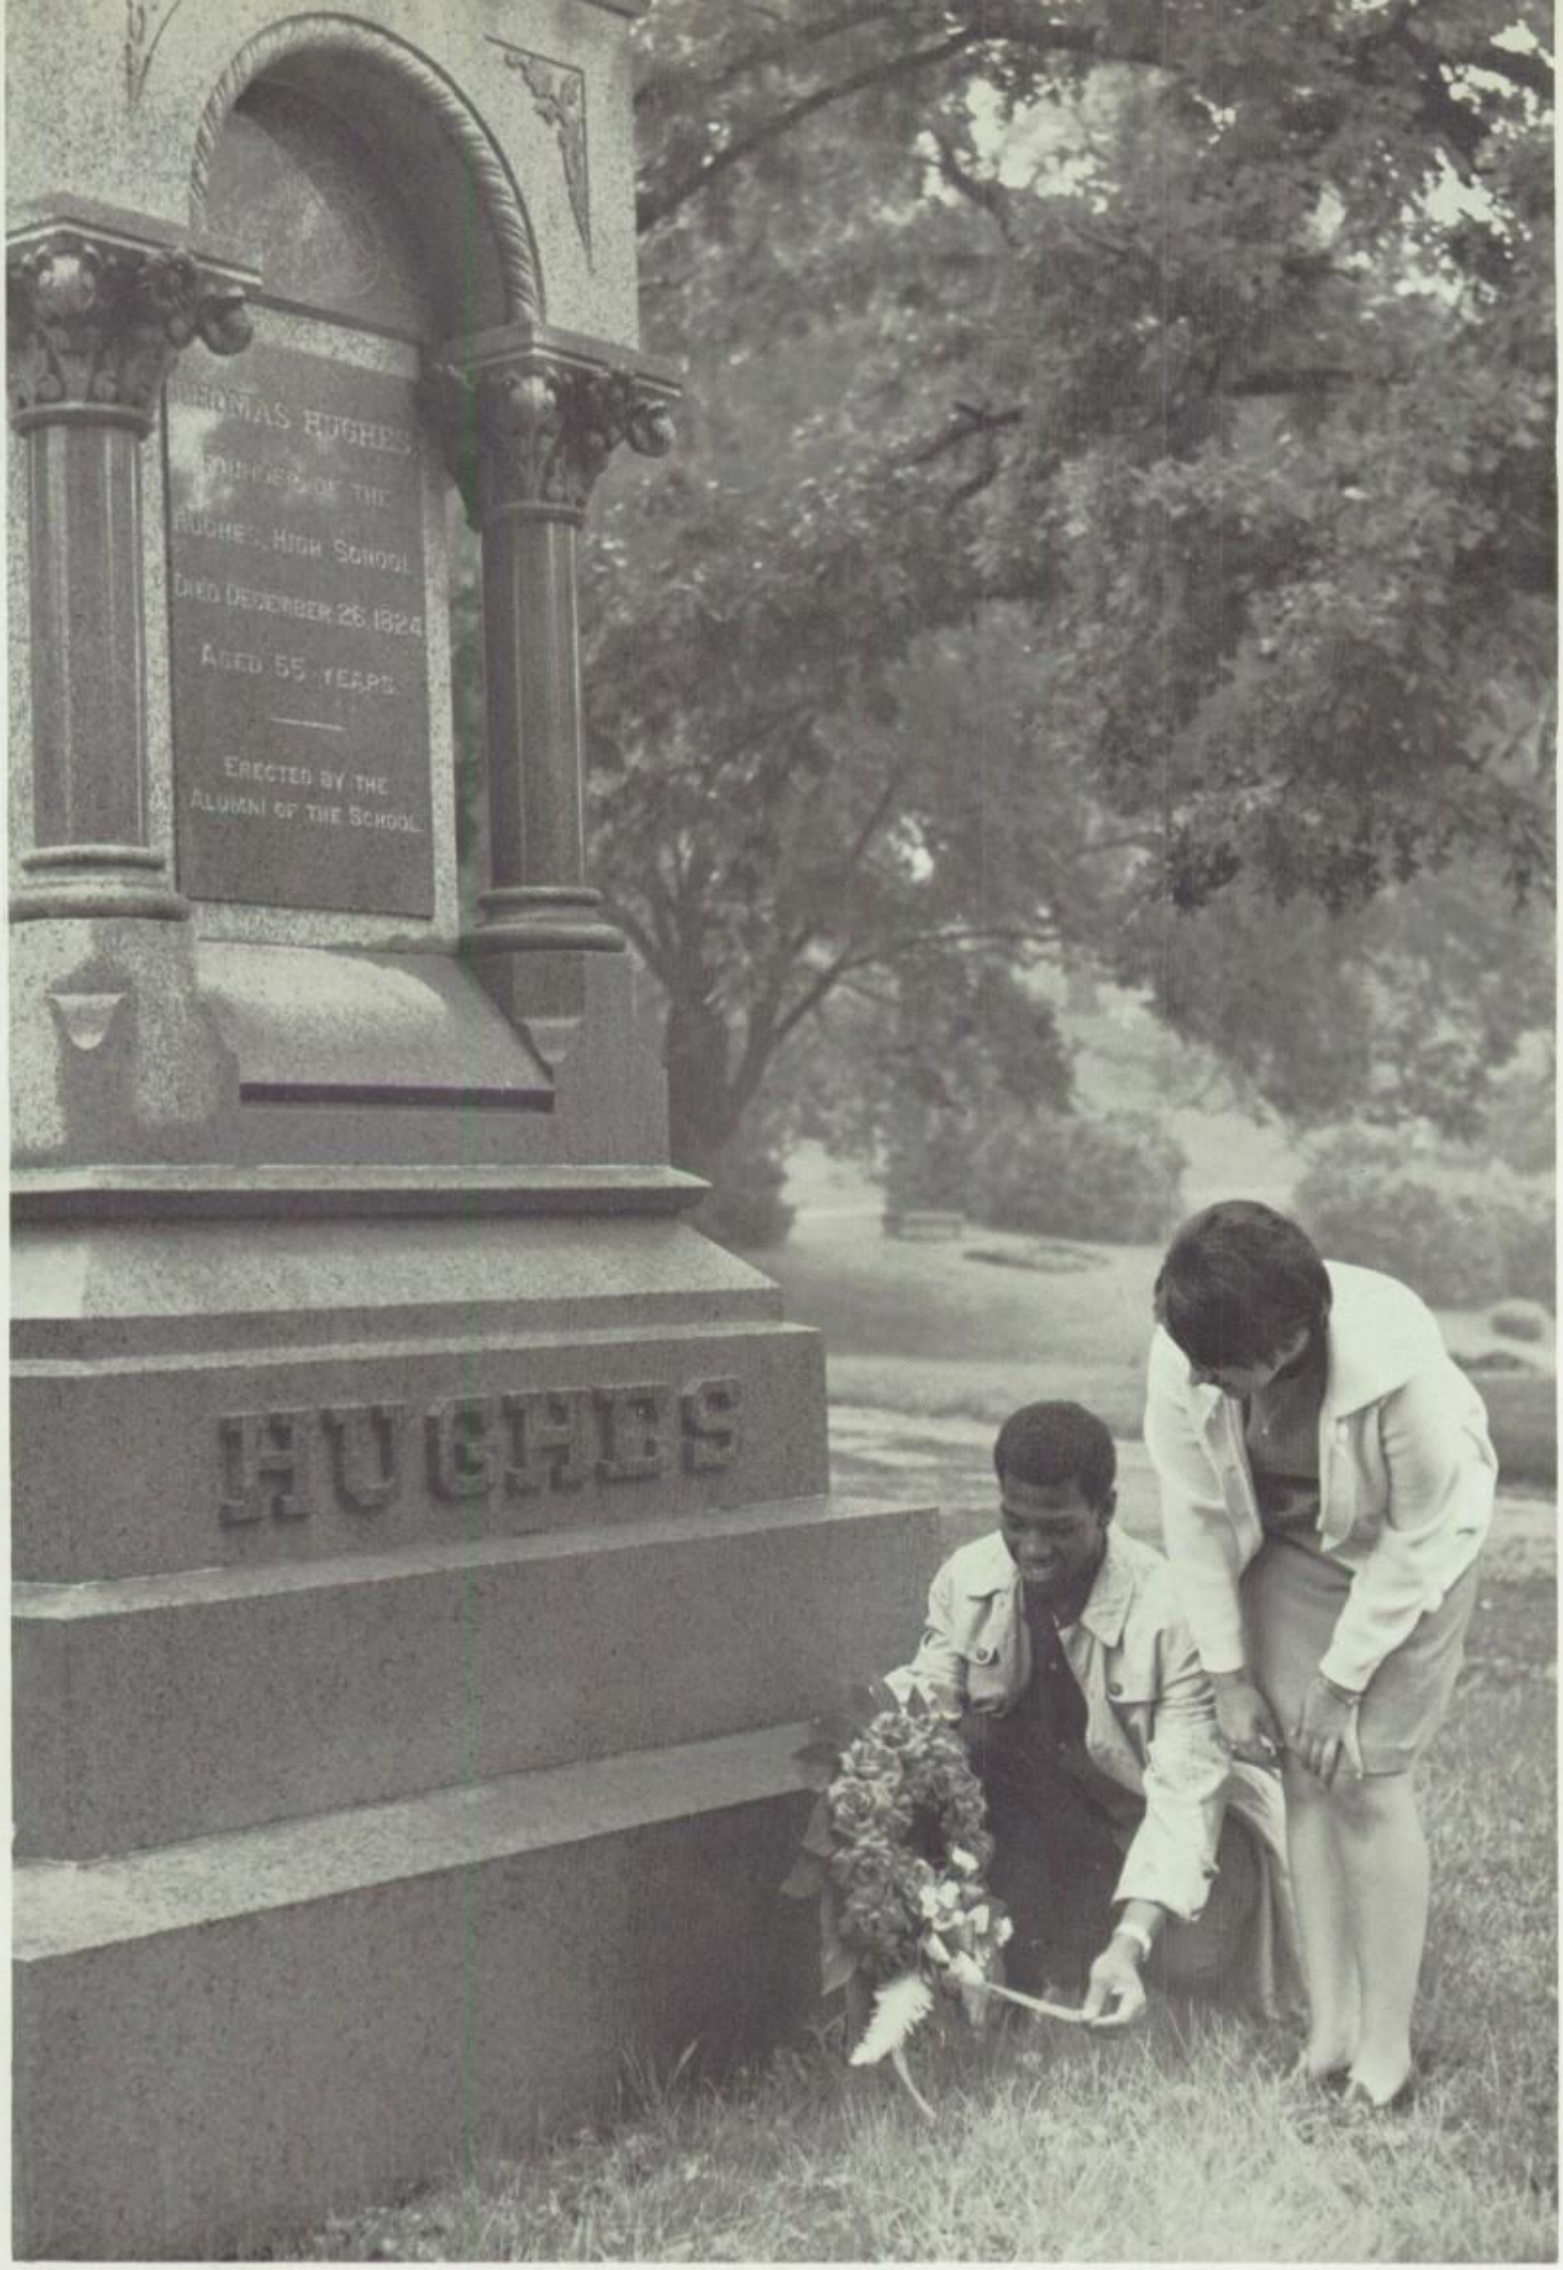
Mr. Coy, long-time principal, is honored each year on Memorial Day.



Jerry St. Clair and Mary Merianos uphold tradition on Cincinnati's 100th Memorial Day, in 1968.

Thomas Hughes, who died on December 26, 1924, was buried in the Twelfth Street burying-ground. Later his body was exhumed and re-interred in Spring Grove Cemetery. The monument project, started in 1865, was directed by Charles H. Stephens, Sidney Omohundro, and H. H. Tatem. After five years of fund-raising by alumni, the monument design was adopted and the monument finally erected in 1871.

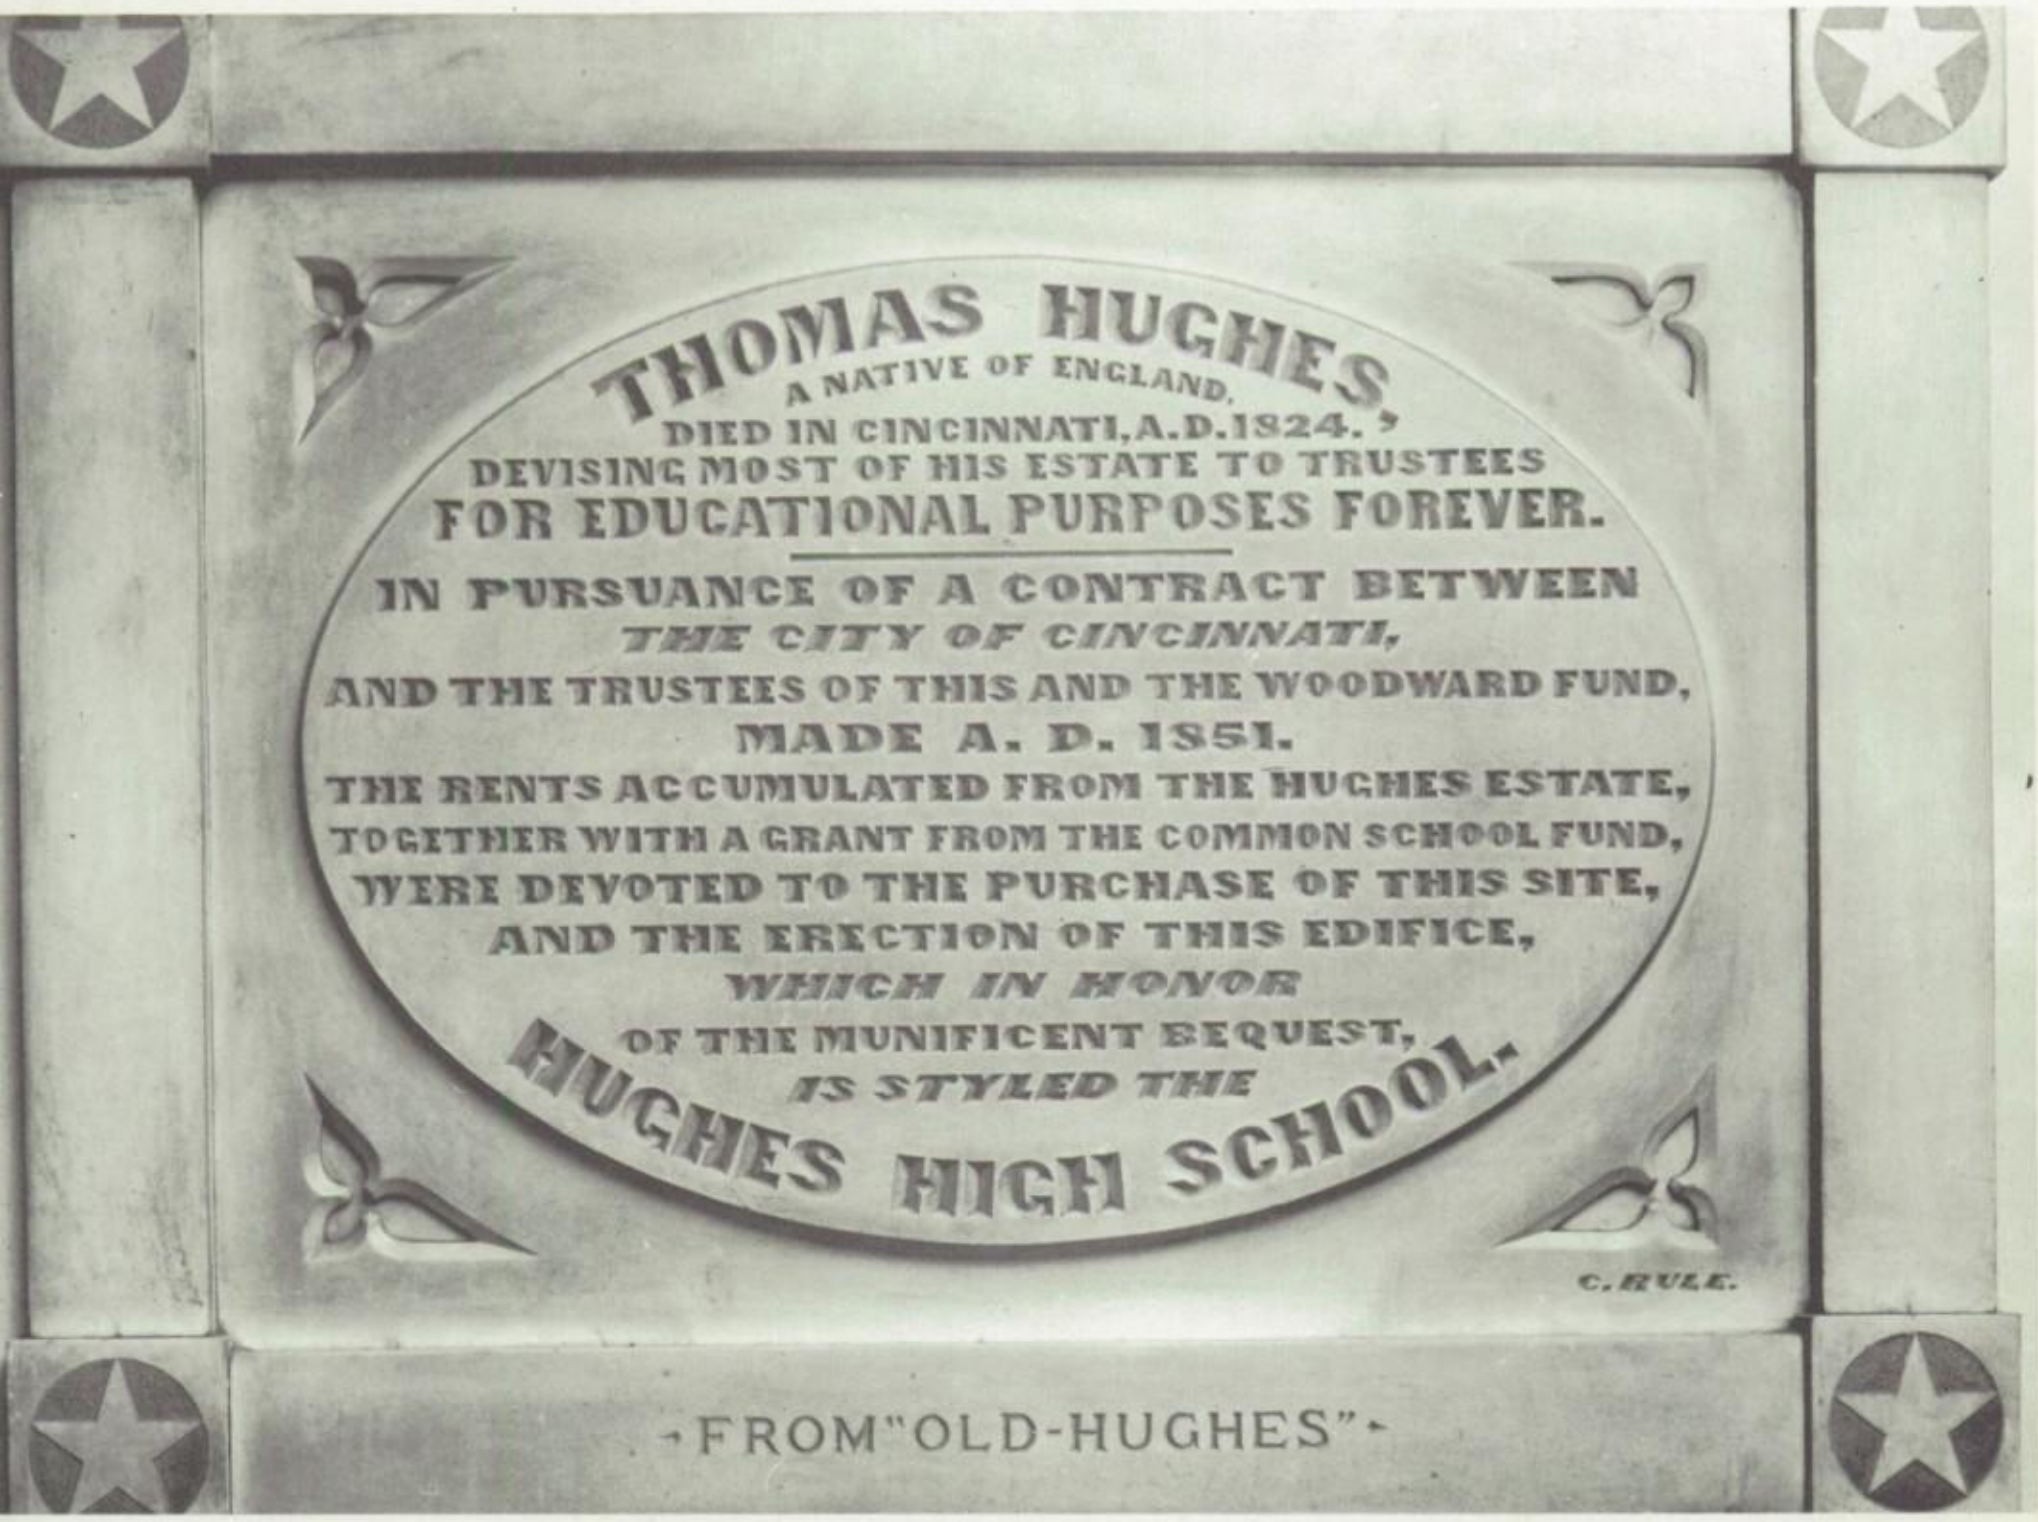
Hughes High School Memorializes Cobbler's Dream

The field of education is often considered to be the most important of all domestic issues. Nowadays, however, there is very little sentimental attention given by individuals to the appropriation of grants meant for the purpose of erecting and supporting new schools. There was a time, though, when the generosity and foresight of one humble man provided sufficient capital for the construction of a school building.

Thomas Hughes was born in England of Scotch parents. He came to America and settled in Cincinnati. Although little is known of his early life, he later owned a farm of thirty acres located northwest of what is now Liberty and Sycamore Streets. Aside from an early marriage, which apparently ended in failure, he lived entirely alone as far as human companionship was concerned. Although he was an excellent horseman and made a good living off his land, he was a shoemaker by trade. It is ironical that this, the year ending a century of Hughes Annuals, is also the two-hundredth anniversary of the birth of Thomas Hughes.

The last will and testament of Thomas Hughes, dated three weeks before his death on December 26, 1824, provided that the "residue of my land and property aforesaid shall be appropriated and applied to the maintenance and support of a school, or schools, in the city of Cincinnati, for the education of poor destitute children, whose parents or guardians are unable to pay for their schooling: the said property, the management of the funds arising therefrom, and those who are fit subjects to receive the benefits thereof; are to be placed under the control of a Board of Trustees". . . . The land "to be by them kept and rents used for the purposes aforesaid, or to be sold, and the proceeds funded."

Because of one man's generosity, Hughes High School stands today, and the Cobbler's Dream of free education has become a reality.



THOMAS HUGHES,
A NATIVE OF ENGLAND,
DIED IN CINCINNATI, A.D. 1824,
DEVISING MOST OF HIS ESTATE TO TRUSTEES
FOR EDUCATIONAL PURPOSES FOREVER.
IN PURSUANCE OF A CONTRACT BETWEEN THE CITY OF CINCINNATI,
AND THE TRUSTEES OF THIS AND THE WOODWARD FUND,
MADE A. D. 1851.
THE RENTS ACCUMULATED FROM THE HUGHES ESTATE,
TOGETHER WITH A GRANT FROM THE COMMON SCHOOL FUND,
WERE DEVOTED TO THE PURCHASE OF THIS SITE,
AND THE ERECTION OF THIS EDIFICE,
WHICH IN HONOR
OF THE MUNIFICENT BEQUEST,
IS STYLED THE
HUGHES HIGH SCHOOL.

Since its beginning, in 1851, Hughes has had only nine principals. Mr. Joseph L. Thornton headed the school when the first Hughes Annual was published. Mr. Elmer Kizer was principal at the time of the Centennial, in 1951. Mr. H. H. Barney inaugurated the present high school system, and Dr. E. W. Coy served Hughes for forty years. Mr. Edmund Lyons was principal during World War I and Mr. Charles Ottermann, during World War II. Dr. Cyrus Knowlton and Mr. C. M. Merry earned deep respect and love of students. The present principal, Mr. Edwin C. Sutton, Jr., has held his post for eleven years.

Ninth Principal

When Mr. Elmer Kizer retired as principal in June, 1958, Mr. Edwin C. Sutton, Jr., an alumnus of Hughes High School, took over the leadership of his Alma Mater. In the last eleven years, he has given wise and efficient direction to all the educational activities for students of Hughes High School.

In 1949, class studies plant life in Hughes greenhouse.

School History Recorded In A Century of Annuals

In 1870, the Committee on Annual from the Society of Hughes Alumni produced the first Hughes Annual. Sidney Omohundro, Class of 1862, was chairman. Other members were Miss Isabella C. Porter, 1858; Miss Charlotte J. Rowe, 1868; Miss Fannie McCarty, 1868; Mrs. Eva B. Rogers Read, 1855; Leonidas B. Cook, 1865; Roderick D. Barney, 1854. The Annual contained the story of Thomas Hughes and histories of the Hughes Fund, Hughes High School, the Society of Alumni, and the Hughes Monument Movement. It also included lists of graduates, teachers, officers of the Alumni Society, and alumnal dead.

That Annual was the beginning of a tradition that has continued through the years.

The 1921 staff offered its Annual "as a fitting record of all our life at Hughes, and as a final testament . . . . of our undying love for our Alma Mater."

Alumnal Association Supports Alma Mater

A few months after the first graduates left Hughes High School, they began to realize how far apart their interests had carried them. It was then that the initial attempts to organize an alumnal association began. The First Annual Reunion of pupils, teachers, trustees and friends of the "Old Central School" was held June 7, 1856. This school had started in November, 1847, and both Hughes and Woodward later sprang from it. A toast was given to the teachers and the response was made by Professor Cyrus Knowlton. Although this had been a successful reunion, it was not until February 1, 1861 that a determined few met in the office of Hiram Powers in Short's Building, Fourth and Hammond Streets, Cincinnati, to adopt a constitution and form the Hughes Alumnal Association. The first reunion, held at Greenwood Hall, was a success. At this meeting, Albert Allen was elected President; James Semple, Recording Secretary; Hiram Powers, Treasurer; and Charles Stephens, George Sands, Littleton Omohundro, K. W. Smith, R. D. Barney, and O. J. Dodds, members of the Executive Committee.

Guiding the association in 1869, one hundred years ago, were Albert Merrell, President; Mary Hirst, Corresponding Secretary; James Ebersole, Recording Secretary; and Frank Peale, Treasurer. The officers for the following year included Sidney Omohundro, President; Mrs. Eva Rogers Read, Corresponding Secretary; Charles McFarlan, Recording Secretary; and Henry Belknap, Jr., Treasurer.

The Society grew and prospered rapidly in the next few years as graduation classes increased in number. At the Annual Reunion in January 1873, all alumni were honored. The speaker of the day was Thornton Hinkle, who graduated in 1858 and later became an attorney.

There were three successive annual Founder's Day Reunions beginning in 1898, when Thornton Hinkle was again the speaker. His remarks at this meeting began, "We are here today in response to an invitation to the inaugural celebration of Founder's Day of the Hughes High School." Then, in commemoration of the Semi-Centennial of Hughes High School, which was observed on June 17, 1901, a stone tablet was placed in Hughes Hall in the original school building. The alumni in attendance were ushered to their seats by the 1901 graduating class.

A most important project in 1911 was the publication of Fifty Years of the Alumnal Association (1861-1911), which also served as the 1911 Hughes Annual, complete with senior portraits. The book is an invaluable history of Hughes High School at the time that the present building was erected. When it was dedicated, the Hon. Louis Schwab was Mayor of Cincinnati, Dr. F. B. Dyer was Superintendent of Schools, and Dr. Andrew F. West, Dean of the Graduate School of Princeton University, was the speaker of the day.

The Alumnal Association has made many contributions to the school, including various fountains and plaques. The Class of 1925 gave to the school, in 1950, a picture and the record of John Anderson, one of the best all-round students ever to graduate from Hughes. At the Centennial Celebration in 1951, a plaque was presented to the school by the Alumnal Association to honor the outstanding boy and girl graduates in citizenship each year.

The most recent contribution by the Association was the support it provided for this Annual, which included subsidizing the Annual itself and sending out announcements concerning the 1969 Hughes Annual to everyone on its mailing list of paid members.

Old Hughes stood on Fifth Street opposite Mound from 1853 until 1910.

Because so many Hughes graduates have become prominent through the years, the 1969 Centennial Annual cannot honor them all individually. Therefore, only the one believed to be the oldest living graduate of Hughes High School is pictured here.

Now 94, Miss Cora Morton, was graduated in 1891. Her father was in the 1867 graduating class with Miss Clara B. Jordan, who was Miss Morton's Latin teacher. Her other teachers were Mr. Sanders, mathematics; Mr. Mumper, chemistry; and Mr. Venable, English. Mr. E. W. Coy was principal. In a class of 66 seniors, Miss Morton ranked fourth, behind Frank Stevenson, Nora Etlinger, and June Donnelly.

Miss Morton earned Bachelor and Master of Arts degrees at Ohio State University. She taught at Norwood High School from 1895 until retirement in 1935. For twenty of those years, she sponsored the Annual.

Miss Cora Morton, lives with her sister, a Hughes graduate of 1895.

STUDIES of Annuals

Through the years, the curriculum at Hughes has undergone many changes. Latin and Greek, formerly popular subjects, have been replaced for the most part by modern languages such as French and Spanish. An accelerated math program allows students to finish freshman college math as seniors in high school. Black culture is being introduced into the system through history and literature courses. Industrial arts and a well-rounded business program offer pupils an opportunity to attain skills through vocational training. This year driver education has been supplemented by a simulator to help achieve lifelike driving situations. Although botany is still taught, the greenhouse, where specimens were grown, was demolished several years ago. Visual aids have become a widely used technique, and students still make frequent use of the Clara B. Jordan Memorial Library. Today's students have a greater opportunity than ever before to obtain a well-rounded high school education.

Our Principal, Mr. Sutton, Gives Message to Hughes '69 Graduates

A number of years ago, one of our former principals said, "The young are continually asked to reach out beyond the usual." This seems to be more true today than ever before. Your success will be determined by how well you are prepared. We hope your high school background will be a positive force in directing you toward a favorable future.

Best wishes to each of you.

Literature and Language Fill English Curriculum

Do you want to improve your reading ability or speech habits? Eliminate grammatical errors? Learn how to use the library? Understand poetry better? Learn to distinguish different kinds of literature? Develop your own style of writing? Read some black literature? Gain some knowledge of journalism? Do some critical thinking? Yes, English classes include work in all these areas and more.

Space Age Science Arouses Interest of Students

In 1969, with man ready to land on the moon, the study of science is more important than ever. Through reading and discussion, Huzites must keep up with new scientific knowledge, which has been gained through exploration of outer space. Leading up to such information, however, students study the physical sciences, physiology, chemistry, and physics. Laboratory work is also part of the curriculum.

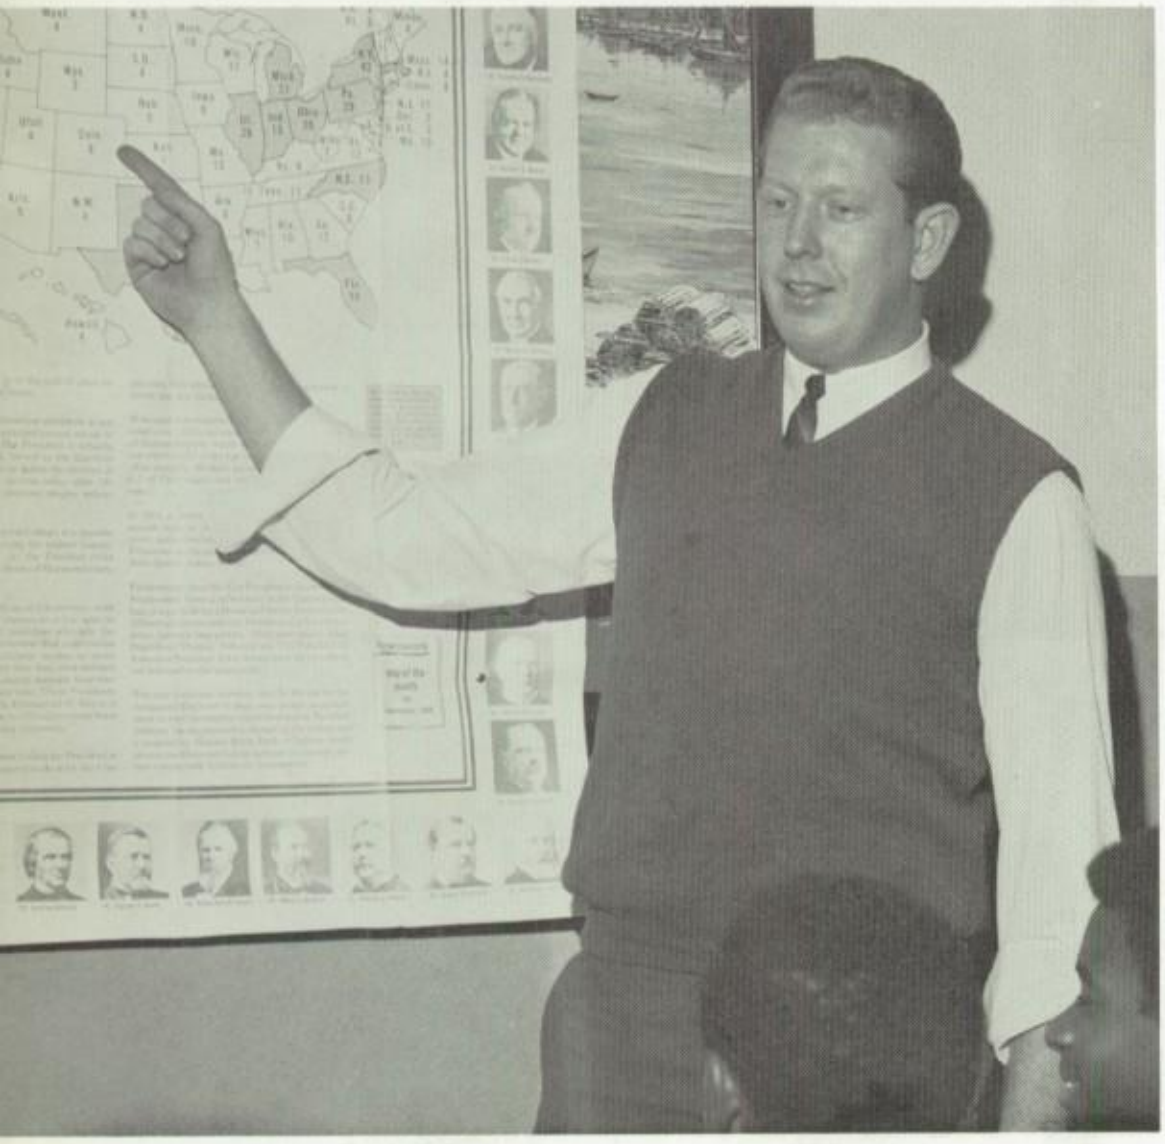
Black History Included in Social Studies This Year



The Presidential election last November was the perfect reason for Mr. McFarland to explain the electoral college system to his social studies classes.

Great interest in black history and culture has encouraged the study and discussion of contributions made by the black man. Films and speakers added to the knowledge gained by students from books used in the various social studies classes.

Again this year, several students got first-hand information about colonial Virginia by visiting Williamsburg after making an exhaustive study of its history.

Many books on black history have been added to the library and students, like these in Mr. Byles' class, are reading them and making reports on them.

Mathematics, Both Abstract and Practical

For centuries people have used mathematics every day in work and in play. Today, however, math is becoming more important for consumers, as well as for businessmen and scientists. In trying to keep up with this demand, Hughes has courses, which include consumer math, algebra, geometry, trigonometry and calculus. College-bound students must study more advanced, abstract mathematics, but other courses satisfy practical needs.

In Mr. Caudill's math class, students learn to plot and solve linear equations.

Students Express Themselves in Music and Art

Junior band members practice under the direction of Mr. Smith. In the mornings, he teaches at Merry Junior High.

Self-expression is an important goal in music and art classes. Faculty members offer instruction and inspiration to their students, many of whom achieve outstanding success. Highlight of the musical year was the appearance of the choir with the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra. Christmas art decorating the front hall drew admiration from everyone, and band music delighted Huzites throughout the year.

Mr. Kerley, new at Hughes, examines several art objects in his classroom, which his students will use to study the principles of form, design, and proportion.

Home Economics—Both an Art and a Science

The Home Economics Department prepares girls for their future as homemakers. In cooking, the girls learn how to follow recipes, increase or decrease amounts of ingredients to be used, plan menus and finally serve complete meals. In sewing, a study is made of patterns, materials, types of clothing, appropriate styles, and techniques of both hand and machine sewing.

"You have prepared a tasty luncheon menu," Mrs. LeClair tells her home ec girls. "Place the napkins around and let's eat!"

Job-Seekers Take Many Kinds of Shop Courses

Hughes educates so many young men who will be seeking jobs immediately after graduation that the Industrial Arts Department is quite large. Driver Training, More Important Than Ever Before

Since driver training is required of all new applicants for driver licenses in Ohio, the course in driver training is important to all Huzites. As sophomores, they take driver education to learn driver safety and basic fundamentals of good driving. Gemini Program Included in Business Department

Called Gemini, and referring to the twin stars Castor and Pollux, the program serves a dual purpose for high school students. They may choose both academic and applied subjects in preparation for both college and work. Eleventh and twelfth grade students carry three academic subjects and also devote a two- or three-period block of time to applied subjects, like Office Practice, Secretarial Practice, and Bookkeeping.

Students Exercise and Play in Physical Education Classes

All ninth, tenth and eleventh grade students take physical education. Seniors are not required to take it. Gym classes afford the opportunity for both boys and girls to exercise, play games, learn new skills, develop good sportsmanship, and keep physically fit. Volleyball and basketball are the favorite sports. However, when weather permits, students go outdoors for games.

Efficient School Secretaries Perform Various Duties

A large number of school secretaries assist the administrators, counselors, librarians, and teachers in many ways. They perform many clerical duties, handle the mail and telephone calls, make appointments, receive visitors to the school, make transcripts, keep financial records, and take care of the many routine details of the various offices. SPORTS

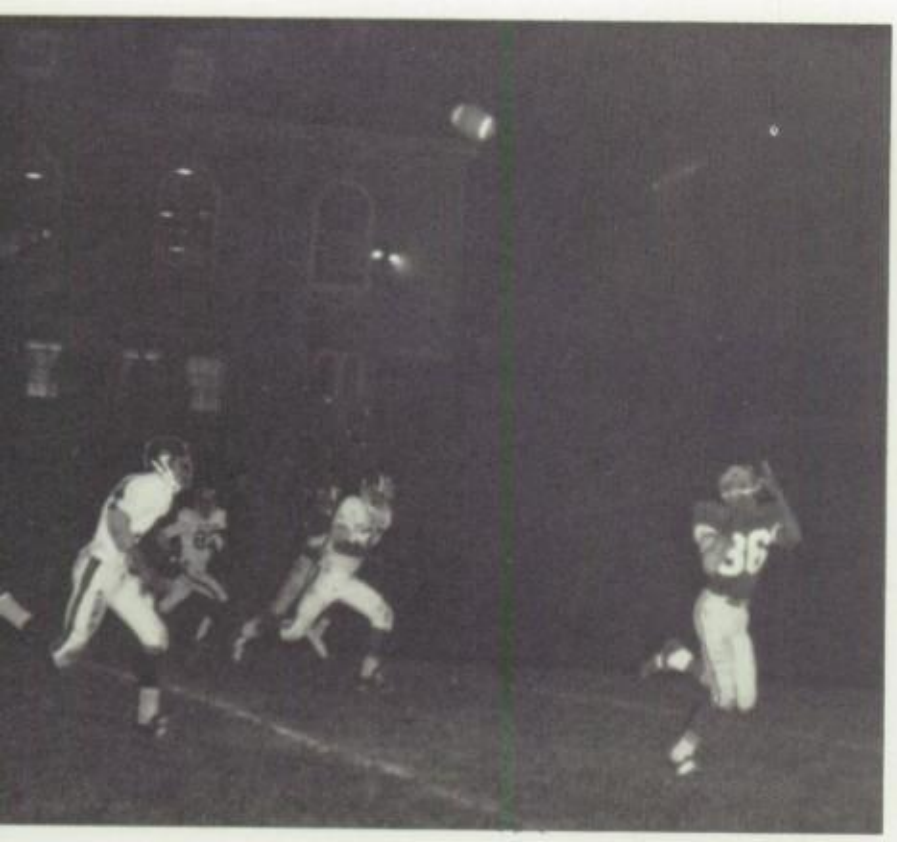
of Annuals



Through the years, sports have played a major role in developing enthusiasm among students. Around 1905, Hughes High School introduced track, football, and basketball into the athletic program. Early pictures and records reveal that the teams achieved outstanding recognition. As early as 1912, Hughes captured the interscholastic championship in football.

As interest in sports increased, it became necessary to provide an athletic field. The generosity of the classes of 1921, 1922, and 1923 made possible such a field, which was named after Dr. Eliab Coy, principal at Hughes for forty years.

Since the introduction of athletics over sixty years ago, Hughes has dominated the field in many sports at various times. In 1930, Hughes captured the state swimming title; beginning in 1936, Hughes was interscholastic tennis champion for seven years in a row; in 1954, the gymnastic team was crowned champion for the 18th consecutive year; in 1968, Big Red wrestlers gained a fourth consecutive title.

Hughes Gridiron, Bright With Stars This Season

What made Hughes' grid season great in '68? Three things: the leadership of new head coach Milt Johnson; a wealth of talent on the team; and the desire of the team to win. Along the way to a successful football year, many outstanding players achieved stardom. Three Hughes gridders took four out of six PHSL Player of the Year Awards: Alan Walker, Offensive Back and Player of the Year Award; Steve Johnson, Offensive Lineman; Ron Wright, Defensive Lineman.

Hughes also placed many gridders on other Annual All-Star Squads.

Post Times-Star Squad: Alan Walker and Steve Johnson. Honorable Mention, Ron Wright.

In individual scoring, Alan Walker ranked third in the city, with 120 points.

Hughes is ready to test Bulldog offense.

Big Reds Lose PHSL Title by Half a Game

Hughes started the '68 football season with a strong defensive team, losing by only a touchdown to favored Oak Hills. Hughes then tied Greater Cincinnati League top contender, Moeller, in a defensive stalemate. This tie gave the Hughes gridders a strong mental attitude as they rushed over the defenseless Western Hills Mustangs. In the games against Taft and Courter Tech, the Hughes defense cracked, but the Big Reds slipped by with one-touchdown wins. In the next two games, the Big Reds blitzed Withrow and caged the Walnut Hills Eagles. Hughes then traveled to Middletown to sink the Mighty Middies for the first time in over ten years. Aiken was next to feel the sting of Hughes gridders' attack.

These victories assured Hughes of a possible League championship. Leading the League at that time, Hughes had to battle last year's champion Woodward Bulldogs for the Public High School League title. With a half-time lead, the Big Reds had strong hopes of victory. However, the strength of the Bulldogs prevailed. Hughes was unable to control the ball the second half and to stop Woodward's fourth-quarter rally. Although Hughes lost the championship by a half game, Coach Johnson and the gridders were proud to have captured second place, with their best team and season in years.

At the beginning of the Reserve season, eighty boys answered the call of new Head Coach Lester McCormick. However, many of the boys had to be dropped because of lack of equipment. At first, the Big Red Reserves seemed unstoppable, but they closed out the season with four defeats. Their only major losses were to Walnut Hills and Woodward. Defeats at the hands of both Withrow and Aiken were by only two points. In League standing, Hughes ranked fifth.

Under Head Coach Owen Hall, assisted by Arthur Weil, the Little Reds were able to win only one game all season, the opener against Ach, in which Vernon Poulter scored twice. The Little Reds actually won their second game, also, but the contest was forfeited because Hughes used an ineligible player. This hurt the team because, after the forfeit, the boys just couldn't seem to work together.

Coach Phillips, Proud of Big Red Winning Ways

Mr. Phillips, new head coach, guided the Big Reds to a 10-7 cage season and a second-place finish in the Public High School League. Three losses were at the hands of extra league foes, Roger Bacon, Elder, and Hamilton Taft.

In league play, Hughes gained victories over Aiken and Walnut Hills before suffering the first of two setbacks against the Taft Senators, who ended up as league co-champions. The first was an overwhelming 91-60 defeat, but the second was only a one-point deficit in a down-to-the-wire battle. Victories over Woodward and Western Hills preceded losses to Courter Tech and Withrow. The Big Reds then proceeded to manufacture wins over the Eagles, Mustangs, Falcons, and Knights. The victory over Courter Tech featured a display of shooting by Henry Davis, who hit 13 of 15 field goals and didn't miss a shot in over-time.

After their second defeat by Taft, the Big Reds, with an 18-point outburst by Mike Johnson in the final stanza, took the measure of Withrow, who became co-champions along with Taft. The season ended with an 87-63 Hughes victory over Woodward.

Tournament play for Hughes started with a win over Glen Este and ended with a loss to the St. Xavier Bombers.

Among individual scoring leaders in the P.H.S.L. were Mike Johnson, Henry Davis and Ron Hill.

Coach Henderson's Reserve basketeers ended league play with a .500 average, losing only to Aiken, Walnut Hills, and Withrow. Hughes also lost to out-of-league foes Roger Bacon, Elder, and Hamilton Taft. With their seven-seven record, Hughes Reserves finished the season in third place. Hughes lost two games each to Aiken and Walnut Hills, but split with Withrow.

Wallace's Little Cagers Share Co-championship

Little Red cagers, under new Coach Wallace, were co-champions of the league with Woodward and Walnut Hills. Hughes suffered a height disadvantage, but made up for it in outside shooting, fast break techniques, and all-round hustle. The Little Reds missed the chance to become sole champions by losing to Walnut Hills in the final game of the season.

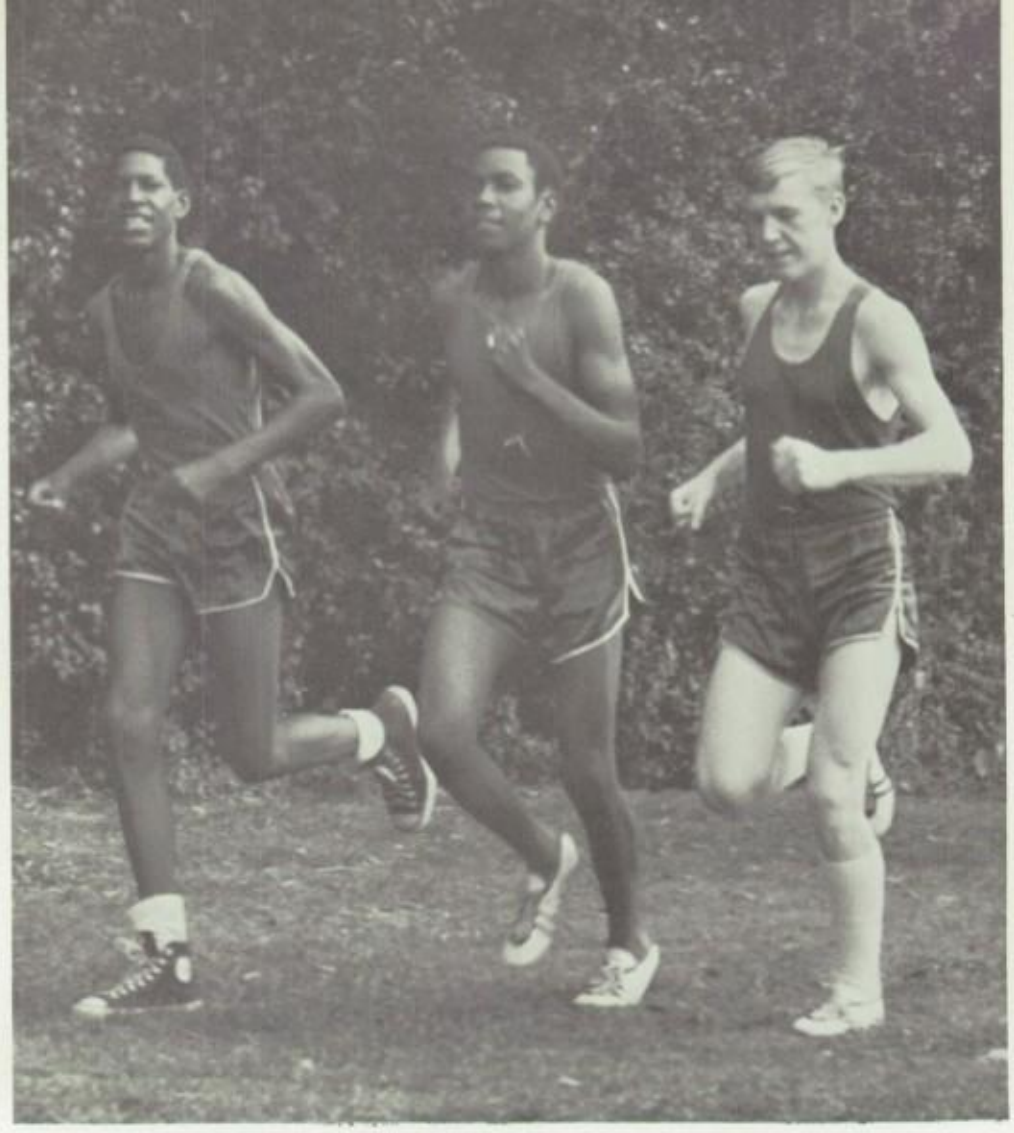
Harriers End Cross-Country Season in Sixth Place

Last fall, a new head coach, Larry Phillips, greeted the Big Red harriers. Along with many new athletes, who came out for cross-country, several veterans returned. At the start of the season, the Big Reds got off on the wrong foot. In its first Public High School meet, Hughes placed 7th, with Gayle Kell as the top Big Red runner. In the next Public High School meet, the Big Reds took a step forward. In this meet Hughes succeeded in pulling up to 6th place. In the last meet of the year, Hughes advanced still another place, capturing 5th place in the League. In this meet, Wilbur Starks proved to be Hughes' top runner. Starks later placed 20th in the district. In the over-all standings for the Public High School League, in 1968, Hughes ranked 6th.



Wilbur Starks, Dan Miree, and Gayle Kell warm up before meet.

Coach McCormick, new at Hughes, was able to fill only seven of eleven weight classes with the small group of matmen left after the Christmas cut. This meant that in every match Hughes forfeited 20 points. However, the Big Reds' only loss in the league was to the champion Mustangs. Hughes placed second in the league, but won the P.H.S.L. tournament and produced four champions: Greg Eberhart, 103 lb.; Howard Fox, 112 lb.; Gayle Kell, 120 lb.; and Morseller Ector, 133 lb.

In the District, out of 32 schools, the Big Reds finished fifth. Ector was the only champion, but Fox took second and Kell, fourth.

Mermen Make Small Wave in P.H.S.L.

Hughes occupies an entire heat with Williams, Brewer, and Tabor.

With only three seniors returning this year, a small group of inexperienced mermen greeted Coach Hall, who accepted the role of Hughes swimming coach in addition to his regular teaching position at Samuel Ach Junior High School. Coach Hall realized he could not win the P.H.S.L. with his nine swimmers, so using what strength he had, he tried to build two strong relays. Hughes finished seventh in the league, winning 128½ points in the three P.H.S.L. meets, 46½ more points than last year.

The medley-relay took two fourth places and the stronger 400-yard freestyle-relay took second, third, and fourth places in consecutive meets. The two relays combined for 116 of the team's points, and Reggie Williams accounted for the rest. The medley-relay consisted of Ken Morrow, Doyle Spradlin, Ray Smith, and Charles Taber or Mike Oliver. The 400-yard relay consisted of Ken Morrow, Doyle Spradlin, Mike Oliver, and Ray Smith.

Junior High Aqualads, who were entered only in the District Invitational Meet by Coach Hall, finished last in the league, not having been entered in any league meets.

Coach Ransick and his tracksters are expecting a great season. With champions Alan Walker and Albert Lanier returning along with other star cindermen, the team has excellent potential. Competition will be tougher than ever, but under the guidance of Coach Ransick and his assistant, Mr. Phillips, the talented Big Red track team should be champions. Last year Hughes missed first place by only a few points.

Whalin slugs out a double in the LaSalle game.

Mr. Lucy, on his return as head coach, und he had nine lettermen and twelve niors back for the '69 season. Lucy's ne plan to better last year's 4-10 league cord and seventh place finish with the turn of their three pitching aces, Whalin, agruder, and Leyendecker. Lucy plans to t batting power from Casey, Edwards, agruder, Thrash, Walker, and Whalin. oach Lucy believes that if team mistakes d errors are eliminated, Hughes will be strong contender in P.H.S.L. competi-n.

At practice, J. Wright motions the bunt, as J. Hand prepares to move.

New Netters Hope To Ace League

One senior was among the three lettermen returning with the small group of inexperienced netters who greeted Richard Bird, new tennis coach. Bird hopes to better last year's sixth place. However, Doyle Spradlin is the only netter turning with a winning record. Spradlin and his partn Ron Myers, were third in the league.

Spring Sports and Physical Fitness

Tennis and softball were the most popular spring sports. Many girls attended the playday in May. Other girls worked on the six events required to receive a Presidential Physical Fitness Award.

Volleyball

Sponsored by Mrs. Jones, twenty-four girls participated in the volleyball meet at Courter Tech on January 17. Hughes earned first place with the A and C teams winning three games each and the B team taking two of three.

Modern Dance

The highlight for Modern Dance was the Symposium held at Taft High School. The girls also danced at the Thanksgiving assembly and Merry-Go-Round. Mrs. Jones was sponsor and the officers were: Beverly Williams, president; Marsha Winkfield, vice-president; Ruby Green, secretary-treasurer.

Basketball

The G.A.A. basketball team, led by Captain Valeria Weatherspoonspoon, enjoyed an eventful season. Team members met twice a week during January and February, mastering skills demonstrated to them by sponsor Mrs. Messina.

Only one team attended the playday at Withrow High School in February. Although the Hughes girls fought hard, they lost to the Walnut Hills team, 17-14.

Mrs. Messina blows the whistle, Pat Thomas gets the tip-off, and the game is on!

G. A. A. Executive Board Plans Activities

Sharing the responsibility of directing activities of the Girls' Athletic Association are Mrs. Mary Messina and Mrs. JoAnn Jones. The gym is used every afternoon after school for one sport or another, each according to its schedule in season. In the spring, the girls go to Coy Field for softball and tennis.

Sponsors of G.A.A.

All through the year, Hughes girls keep active in a variety of sports. Board members help the sponsors to have teams ready for playdays and to keep necessary records for each sport. The high-point girl is honored at the Awards Assembly.

Eight Racqueteers Return

Although Coach Grimes has lost most of his leading players, the Hughes racquetmen believed they were sure to have a fine season. The reason for this opinion was that they had excellent returning material.

Leading the state's squad will be Glen Grubbs, Sam Ulmer, Bill Grimes, Stewart Lipp, Russ Smith, Roger Perry, Jim Jervis, and Dean Moore.

STUDENTS of Annuals

Through the years, the students of Hughes High School have been of many colors, black, white, yellow—of many creeds, Protestant, Catholic, Jewish, Mormon—from foreign lands, Latvia, Greece, India, Philippine Islands; but all have cheered loudly for Big Red victories, groaned just as loudly on test days, felt nervous on Merry-Go-Round nights, accepted their applause graciously, dreaded homework, gotten into mischief, stamped their feet—whether wearing shiny high-buttoned shoes, dirty saddle oxfords or gleaming go-go boots—and rushed excitedly out of the building at dismissal time.

Originally, Hughes consisted of grades nine through twelve. Then, in the early 1950's, came junior high students. With the transfer of seventh and eighth graders last year, Hughes is again a four-year senior high school. Having completed the requirements for graduation, seniors—whether wearing white dresses and dark suits or red and white caps and gowns—proudly receive diplomas and solemnly sing their Alma Mater.

Responsibilities Fulfilled by Class of '69

Senior Class Officers: Karen Williams, President; Ruby Green, Secretary; Joyce Collins, Treasurer; Carl Blackwell, President Pro Tem and Sergeant at Arms.

Senior Class Officers

The Class of 1969 started the year, full of enthusiasm and excitement as to what its final year at Hughes High School would bring. Led by the officers and advised by Mr. Hobson, the seniors prepared for their traditional activities: the Christmas Party, Candy Sale, and Pig-tail Bow-tie Day.

Now, the Class of '69 eagerly awaits its Commencement, a "first" for Hughes at the Cincinnati Convention Center.

IN MEMORIAM

In the passing of Mr. Fred Foegler, on March 15, 1969, Hughes High School lost a valued mathematics teacher. He was loved and respected by all who worked with him, both teachers and students.

SPIRIT of Annuals

Through the years, Huzites have always had spirit. It is this spirit that compels them to participate in all phases of school activities. Spirit of learning is required of those students desirous of worthy membership in school organizations. This year the Hughes choir received the honor of performing with the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra in a Christmas concert. Spirit of competition drives others into many fields from sports to class and club elections. Outstanding scholars and athletes receive recognition through membership in honor clubs. For several years, Hughes had the distinction of having the largest Pep Club in the state of Ohio.

The school motto, Deo et Patriae, has been exemplified through the years by young men and women responding to their country's call in times of crisis. This patriotism and other service projects are a source of pride and a way of showing Hughes spirit.

Band Director Smith Travels From Merry Each Day

What are those sounds coming out of Room 325? The Big Red band is practicing a march for a half-time show. Much later, "Jingle Bells" gets a workout for the Christmas assembly. After the holidays, band members prepare solo and group numbers for the contests at Miami University. Then it's Merry-Go-Round time and the all-important band has plenty of music to learn! Finally, to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstances", graduates march to the stage for their Commencement.

Ensemble Makes Cultural Contribution to City

Of the many activities which the Ensemble participated in during the year, they received perhaps the most recognition from the Solo and Ensemble Contest at Miami University. Here superior ratings were achieved by Ellis Henley, Juan Wilkinson, Cheryl Hillman, and the Girls' Trio. Other activities included presentation of musical numbers on WKRC, and the Christmas Program at the Taft Auditorium by the Girls' Chorus. This earned $150.00 for them.

All aboard! Choir members entertained at Children's Hospital.

"Choir Harmonizes Through Active Year"

The Hughes Senior Choir, directed by Mr. Peter Ayer, upheld as usual its reputation as a talented and well-conducted group. Various contests at Princeton High School, which included choirs from schools throughout the city yielded superior ratings for the Hughes Choir.

The greatest honor for the choir during the year was singing with the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra at a Christmas concert. When the University of Cincinnati celebrated its Sesquicentennial during the month of November, the Hughes Choir provided music. During the Lenten season in March, the choir participated in an Inter-racial Program conducted by Father Clarence Rivers at Christ Episcopal Church downtown.

Although the choir spent an active year traveling throughout the city to entertain and compete, they did not neglect their obligation to the school itself. Besides providing music for both the Thanksgiving and Christmas assemblies, they also gave various evening performances. In May, choir members contributed several show-stoppers to the annual Merry-Go-Round. Their final activity for 1969 came when they furnished the choral music for Commencement.

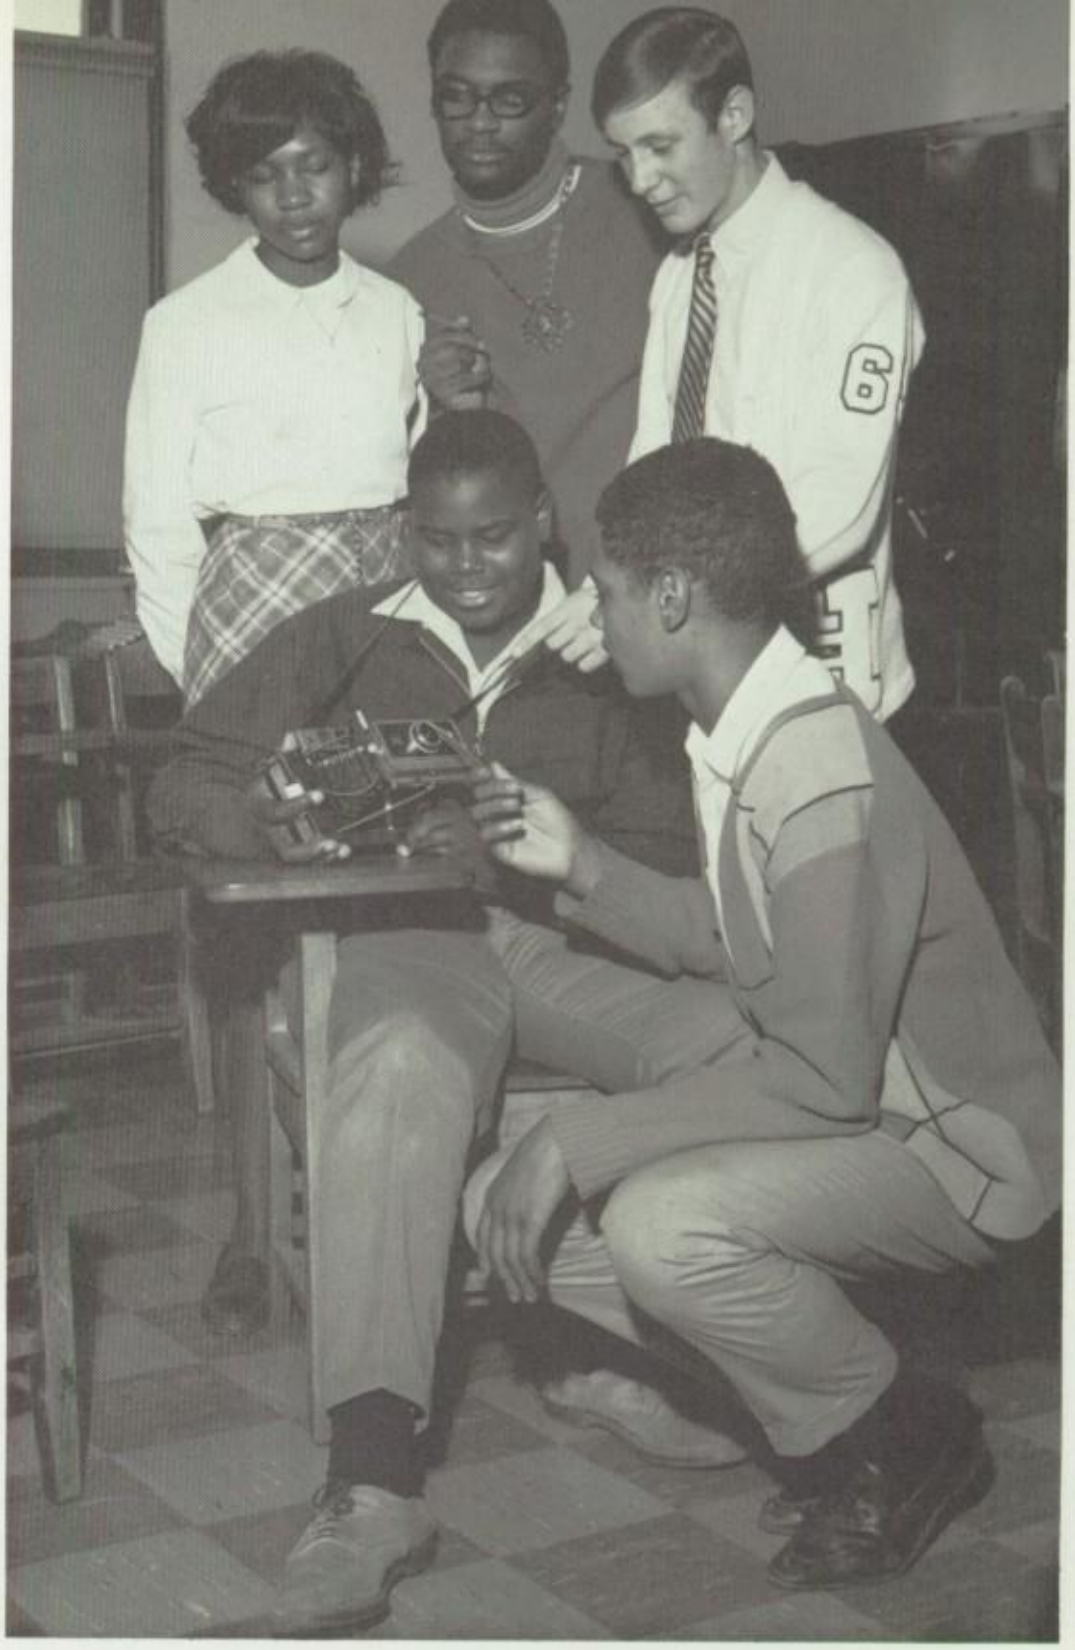
Members of Junior Choir Begin Vocal Study

Mrs. Rheba Clark, advisor, explains to Juanita Glover, editor, how to make the headline fit.

Hard at work is Gerry Mullikin. Daryl Elliott, Millie Jarrett, Nathaniel Robertson are satisfied!



Terry Clay (in front) points out the lens opening of Daryl Elliott's camera. Alice Heard, Ira Hill, Roger Brewer look on.

Deadline draws near for Millie Jarrett, Nathaniel Robertson, Ira Hill, and Alice Heard.

Juanita Glover, center, edits the paper; associate reporters Gilda Williams and Karen Thomas look over an array of photos to select suitable ones to accompany their stories for the next issue.

Gargoyle Presents News and Views of Hughes

With Mrs. Clark as advisor and Juanita Glover as editor, the Gargoyle kept Huzites informed of happenings at school. The mimeographed six-page paper used a three-column format. Reporters interviewed teachers and students and covered school activities, from the tutorial adjustment program through Black History Week to the Williamsburg trip. Several new feature columns added interest to the pages this year. Page six presented news of the various sports, coaches, and athletes.

An added contribution by the Gargoyle staff this year was a morning reporter over the PA system with up-to-the-minute news not included in the regular daily bulletin.

'69 Annual Staff "Turns It Out" As Always

Although many eyes will scan the pages of this Annual, few readers will actually stop to think about how it was put together. The book was planned a year ago when the co-editors and literary advisor met with Leland Williams, representative of the Benson Printing Company, in a downtown Cincinnati hotel room. A rough sketch was drawn up and it was decided to begin the book with a 48-page history of the Annual at Hughes and then to move "into our own thing" with the record of 1969.

Finally, after seven months of effort, the literary staff and business managers reached their goal.

Annual sponsor, Miss Leola Mae Reynolds, relied on her co-editors, Sandye Utley and Ken Cairns to produce "the book of a century."

Student Council Aids Pupil-Teacher Understanding

Student Council Executive Board—Hazel Wallace, Treasurer; Carolyn Jones, Vice-President; Carolyn Cook, Secretary; Steven O'Banion, President.

This year the Hughes Student Council truly became an example of student government. Mr. Stephen Jones, faculty advisor, successfully led members through a series of changes. A new method of electing representatives was adopted this year in which members were selected on a proportional basis according to elementary school districts.

A demerit system was put into effect by the Council and food complaints were investigated by the lunchroom committee.

Committee Contributes Black History Course To Curriculum

Perhaps the most important change was the formation of a Black History Workshop. Composed of several Council members and representatives from the faculty and administration, the Workshop established a course which students could take during regular study hall periods. Mr. Underwood, who taught the course, said it covers African culture, slave trading and the role of the black man in the Americas up to the present time. Next year the elective course will be offered on a half-credit basis.

President Steven O'Banion welcomed Cleveland's Mayor Carl Stokes in an upperclassmen assembly last fall.

The Rev. Mr. Otis Moss (seated) addressed Huzites in a Black History Assembly.

Mr. Boulton Sponsors National Honor Society

Students maintaining a "B" average are eligible for membership in the Hughes Chapter of the National Honor Society. Mr. Jack Boulton, new art teacher, assumed responsibility for the group, which this year welcomed freshmen into the club. Initiates were tapped in the spring and members assisted in the production of Merry-Go-Round.

Huzettes Enthusiastically Receives New Sponsor

Huzettes, under the leadership of advisor Mrs. Katherine Saul, and president Diane Casebolt, is one of the most active service clubs at Hughes. Composed of sophomore, junior, and senior girls, Huzettes tries to promote better understanding between students and teachers. This year, among other things, members baked cookies to send to servicemen in Vietnam and assisted teachers by pulling grade trays every six weeks.

Last year's president, Hildreth Grigsby, installs her successor at the Huzettes Tea last May.

Y-Teens Sponsor Social and Service Projects

Y-Teens is a large Hughes club that lacks only one element —young men. However, members of this exclusively female club have kept extremely busy throughout the year. Mrs. Steltenpohl again sponsored the group and the president was Gwen Hatcher. Members had parties at Thanksgiving and Christmas time and on St. Patrick's Day. They also gave canned goods to the Emanuel Community Center at Thanksgiving and sponsored a potato chip sale.

Y-Teens Executive Board—First Row: A. Heard, Vice-President; V. Bailey, Secretary; D. Hilson, Sergeant at Arms. Second Row: B. Johnson, Chaplain; G. Hatcher, President; J. Alexander, Treasurer.

Y-Teens—First Row: C. Crawford, D. Pick, J. Miles, P. Jeter, V. Bailey, L. Dennis, R. Minor, T. McKee, C. Ligon, B. Odams. Second Row: D. Harris, M. Jarrett, J. Harris, C. Greene, S. Williams, J. Various Openings in Construction Industry Studied

The Construction Club, new to Hughes this year, is headed cooperatively by Mr. Ruey Newsom and Dr. Robert Howe, professor of civil engineering at U.C. This club was formed primarily to make students aware of opportunities for employment in the construction field. The officers for the '68-'69 school year are: Don Robbins, president; Reed Coen, vice-president, and Pat Haake, secretary.

Chess Competitors Concentrate on Checkmate

Although chess is not a very glorified sport, it is, however, one which requires ultimate mental acuteness and can at times be most strenuous. The Chess Club participates in the Cincinnati Area Chess League and various school chess tournaments. It strives to promote both intra- and inter-school chess competition. The officers are: Fred Weber, president, and Robert Dunn, treasurer. The sponsor is Mr. Richard Bird.

DECA Puts Business Principles into Practice

The Hughes Chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America had a successful and busy year under the leadership of Mr. Siddall and president Pam Pflug. Students took merchandising as a class to learn the fundamentals of business. Field trips were taken to the Keebler Company and Procter and Gamble. At a District Contest at Princeton, Wilma Steiner won second place in Parliamentary Law.

Senior Pam Pflug shows skill at her job in the pre-billing department of Mabley and Carew.

Visual Aids Crew—Very Important People!

"I'll show you how to put in a new lamp," Mr. Mellinger tells Robert Willingham and Willie Solomon.

This year's Visual Aids Crew, headed by Mr. Dan Mellinger, worked throughout the day to distribute films, various types of movie projectors, and tape recorders. Because of the large supply of films and tapes available from the Board of Education, Hughes students and teachers received much stimulation in the classroom. The main teaching aids added this year were film strips with accompanying tapes and new transparencies for over-head projectors.

Junior Council on World Affairs—First Row: M. Dean, treasurer; S. Turner, president; A. Simmons, secretary; G. Smith, sergeant at arms; L. Strahorn, vice-president; P. Bush. Second Row: G. Clark, F. Johnson, J. Haynes, R. White, D. Hughes, J. Lee, Mr. McFarland, sponsor, T. Smith. Third Row: R. Graham, H. Lemons, W. Pitts, J. Ellis.

The Junior Council on World Affairs was sponsored this year by Mr. McFarland. The club's purpose is to create an interest in world affairs and to encourage discussion of today's problems. Several members attended the 23rd annual World Affairs Institute at the Netherland Hilton Hotel, March 14 and 15. Sandra Turner served as president of the club, Larry Strahorn, vice-president, and Angela Simmons, secretary.

Among Hughes delegates to the World Affairs Institute were Larry Strahorn and Terry Smith.

M. Arrington Again Leads Le Cercle Francais

Le Cercle Francais, headed by M. Arrington, has again enjoyed a fun-filled year of activity. Hughes's French Club is one of the oldest of the modern language clubs. Although the club is smaller this year, it continues to demonstrate a true French spirit of enthusiasm. The purpose of the club is to learn more about French civilization and culture. Students enjoy filmstrips and French songs and poems. Members of the club also enjoy after-school dances, at which refreshments are served. The officers this year are Joyce Penn, president; Juanita Glover, vice-president; and Michael Ware, secretary.

Interested students again helped make this year's Spanish Club a success. Members met monthly to learn more about the history and customs of Spanish-speaking peoples. Throughout the year, activities sponsored by this hard-working club included three bakesales and a December dance open to all students. Hughes pennants bearing the school motto in Spanish, "Dios y Patria," were also sold by the club. For the second year, Spanish teacher William Reichling sponsored the club and officers for the 1968-69 school year were: Tom Adams, president; David Swango, vice-president; Frances Crawford and Connie White, secretaries.

Students Seek Careers in Health and Medicine

Mrs. Gladden's Health Careers Club brought together many students, each sharing a common interest in learning more about the job opportunities open to them. Members, led by president Alice Heard, participated in the Inter-City Council of Health Careers and visited an orphanage.

Under the enthusiastic leadership of Miss Carole Kirchheiner, students interested in becoming teachers joined the Future Teachers of America. One of the first activities was visiting University of Cincinnati's College of Education. Members also celebrated Teaching Career Month in April.

Teaching Career, Goal of These Club Members

Dramatics Club Members Star on Hughes Stage

Promising young entertainers enjoyed a full schedule of activities in Mr. Murphy's Dramatics Club. With the able assistance of two student teachers, Miss Solomon and Mr. Brown, the members saw plays at Mt. St. Joseph and Miami University, performed in a variety show, and experimented with a video-tape machine.

Stage Crew Signals for Lights! Curtain! Action!

The hard-working Stage Crew, led by Mr. Byles and stage manager Gary Hooker, successfully completed this year's work. David Cornish, Gary Hooker, Wayne Hartman, and Roy Stanforth (below) had the responsibility of creating lighting effects, providing an audible sound system, and keeping the stage in working order for assemblies.

Literature, Music Lovers Form English Club

A new club at Hughes this year was the English Club, sponsored by Miss JoAnne Vitali. Members shared an interest not only in all phases of literature but in all kinds of music. Members could be seen doing anything from interpreting poetry by Ferlinghetti to listening to electronic music. Field trips were also taken to see Shaw's Saint Joan at the Playhouse and the film of Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet.

"Speed and accuracy are both important in mathematics," stated Mr. Stier, sponsor of the Math Club. Students from Math III and Math IV classes make up the membership of the club. Its purpose is to increase interest in the study of math and to have a little fun with numbers and computations. One meeting featured former Hughes students now pursuing math courses in college.

Math Club—First Row: Y. Smith, N. Robertson, C. Crawford, J. Caulton, Secretary; V. Bailey, V. West, G. Mullikin, A. Simmons. Second Row: D. Swango, S. Turner, E. Robertson, J. Collins, S. Sanders, L. Gaines, M. Miller, D. Bullock. Third Row: M. Wilson, A. McKenzie, President; J. Murphy, C. Lyons, B. Koch, L. Williams, Vice-President; J. Banks, A. Lilly, G. Hatcher, H. In 1870, the first Hughes ANNUAL printed the "Parting Song,"
Written by Albert H. Allen and sung by the Class of 1855—Winter Term.

STANZA III.

Here we part, and yet, though severed
Are the bonds that bind us here,
Friendship's claim shall ne'er be broken,
But shall hold us ever near,
And though through this world of trouble,
All perhaps may widely rove,
Guided by the star of heaven,
May we meet at last above.

Now, at parting time for the Class of 1969, we leave this message:

We have had a successful year at Hughes,
The Class of Sixty-Nine!
Because we had to set an example,
We always stayed in line.
Now the end of the year is here upon us,
We're finished with work and play.
We're ready for the Seventies
And for peace and prosperity we pray.

Hughes Annuals

Alma Mater

She's the goddess we adore, is Hughes,
And we love her more and more, our Hughes,
Oh, we hope to keep her fame
In every kind of game—
And all praise be to her name,
Hughes, Hughes, Hughes!

May her strength remain for aye, our Hughes,
Though in time her walls decay, our Hughes,
Oh, Phoenix-like she'll rise
Till her towers strike the skies
And her sunset banner flies,
Hughes, Hughes, Hughes!
